

WICHY AMBASSADOR TO CONFER WITH WELLES

'HOARDING' OF
COAL SUPPLY
WILL BE URGED

Preliminary Plans for Campaign Discussed By Defense Council

CHAIRMAN NSELECTS
TWO COMMITTEES

Reports On Salvage, Police
And Fire Workers Are Submitted

Preliminary plans for conducting a campaign to appeal to the public to fill coal bins now for next winter's use, were discussed at a meeting of the Civilian Defense Council
Wednesday at the Lape hotel.

For some time the federal government has been urging "hoarding" of coal because of expected transportation problems next fall in view of the fact that army supplies will tax the capacity of the nation's railroads. Assistance of Salem coal dealers will be sought in a plan to store enough coal for delivery to homes and institutions
early in the summer.

Committees Named

Chairman Ralph Atkinson appointed Fire Chief Vincent Malloy and Service Director Frank Wilson to contact all institutions in the city, urging compliance with the government's request. Another committee to confer with dealers in a campaign to appeal to the residential coal consumers includes L.
H. Colley, Ralph Hawley and James H. Wilson.

John T. Burns, ration board coordinator, reported that sugar rationing instructions still are incomplete but that word had been received to the effect that wholesaler, retailers and institutions will be placed on a ration first.

Supt. E. S. Kerr, chairman of the local salvage committee, reported the school children have completed their second collection of papers which totaled 7.2 tons. One collection of metals brought in 5.1 tons.
One more collection of each is planned before the school season
closes.

Police Chief Ralph Stoffer said
80 had registered for auxiliary police and that a few more are needed. He expects to start a school of instruction for these registrants
within the next ten days.

Fire Chief Vincent Malloy announced that 150 had registered for auxiliary firemen, air raid wardens and fire watchers. He is now going over the list to select day and night men and as soon as weather permits outdoor drills will be started.

Various Groups Cooperate

A general tightening up at the plants and good cooperation from the city police and state highway patrol were reported by James Wilson, chairman of the industrial committee.

Albert Hanna called attention to the minstrel show at the High school auditorium next Wednesday night as a benefit for the medical preparedness committee's work, and Chairman William reported that an extra telephone line had been installed at the fire station to take care of emergency calls. City water basins and well fields are being guarded, Frank Wilson reported.

New U. S. Ambassador In Moscow

William Standley, retired rear admiral recently appointed ambassador to Russia, is pictured (left) as he presented his credentials to Mikhail Kalinin, chairman of the presidium, upon his arrival in Moscow. Standley is reported to have told Russian leaders in his first conference that the United States is determined that all war supplies promised to Russia will be forthcoming with all possible speed.

Japs Are Really Panicked By Royce's 'Made-In-U.S.' Bombs

Raiding General Calls Feat A "Field Day For Two Days
—Something In The Nature Of A Picnic"

UNITED STATES ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN AUSTRALIA, April 16.—Consternation as well as made-in-the-U. S. A. bombs hit the Japanese when the aerial task force of Brigadier General Ralph Royce smashed at the Philippines, its leader related today.

"The raids obviously threw the Japanese into a terrific panic," Royce said. "You can imagine their bewilderment when, suddenly out of the sky, appeared a big bunch of bombers which let loose everything on them."

"They didn't know where the bombers came from and the radio used up all the ether for the whole of Sunday trying to find out where we were coming from and means for stopping us."

Seated serenely on a hotel as though he just had returned from a weekend pleasure junket, Royce told the story of the thrilling exploit and said the whole plan for it was drawn up by General Douglas MacArthur and his staff.

Royce called the raid "a field day for two days — something in the nature of a picnic."

He said he sent the heavy bombers toward Manila on Sunday. They got one transport near Batangas,
he said, while another bombed
Nichols field with a stick of explosives which it had carried on an unsuccessful hunt for enemy
cruisers and destroyers near Corregidor.

The same morning, General
Royce said he sent medium bombers—he had 10 twin-engine B-25's and three four-engine B-17's—to the island of Cebu to bomb transports and escort vessels. In the afternoon, half returned to Cebu and he remained went to the island of Davao.

Again the next morning, he said,
ransports off Cebu and Davao and installations ashore were bombed successfully.

The only bomber lost, Royce
said, was one which was grounded
"or an engine change. It was smashed by the only direct hit by the enemy during the foray."

"It was on the second day that we experienced opposition," he went on.

"Then there was plenty of anti-aircraft fire."

"The raids were carried out at heights of 5,000 down to 2,000 feet."

Royce said he did not take actual part in the attacks themselves but maintained personal contact with them by courier plane. The teamwork of his fliers, he declared, left nothing to be desired.

25 PERMITS ISSUED
HERE SINCE JAN. 1

Warmer weather is expected to result in increased building activity in Salem, although residential business construction to the value of $43,675 has been recorded in the city since the first of the year.

A total of 25 building permits has been issued at the mayor's office
since Jan. 1, records show.

Included were permits for the construction of six new homes, 10
repair jobs to residences, three garages, two factory expansions, one apartment and three storeroom improvements.

The latest permit was issued yesterday to Harry P. Hoch of 1132 Cleveland st. for a $300 garage at his home.

"We now have test cars on the road which are running on tires made without rubber," said an announcement. "We can make no further comment on this development at this time."

U.S. BOMBERS
USE BASE IN PHILIPPINES

Protected By Fighter War-
planes And Provisioned
For Future Use

ONE PLANE IS LEFT
FOR ENGINE CHANGE

Others Return, Ferrying 44
Army Men, Civilians
From Islands

(By Associated Press)

UNITED STATES ARMY HEAD-QUARTERS IN AUSTRALIA, April 16.—Brig. Gen. Ralph Royce, volunteer leader of the bomber squadron which delivered the United States' first long distance smash in the Philippines, disclosed today that the raiders used a base hidden in the islands, protected by fighter planes, and provisioned it for future use.

Twelve planes of the 13 which for two days wrought destruction and dismay among the enemy at the start of the week ferried 44 passengers on their return trip to Australia—10 crewmen from a fortress bomber lost on the foray and 34
army men and civilians from Bataan, Corregidor and other
island points.

Most of the evacuees were airmen left behind as excellent, especially now that they have plenty of food. The American fighter planes cooperated with the Australia-based bombers, shooting down two Japanese planes that tried to attack the bomber squadron.

The hidden field served the 10
medium and three fortress bombers as a forward base on their 4,000-mile round-trip attack. The fortress craft lost on the flight was grounded there, having an engine changed,
when a Japanese bomb hit destroyed
it in flames.

The advance base may figure prominently in future attacks, for the assaults of last Sunday and Monday were acclaimed here as only a sample of heavier blows still in store.

SUGAR LIMIT
IS HALF-POUND

That's First Rationing Allowance, Beginning
Week Of May 4

WASHINGTON, April 16.—The government announced today that the nation's first sugar ration allowance would be half a pound a week per person.

This quota will apply only to the first two weeks of rationing,
which is scheduled to begin sometime during the week of May 4-7.
All citizens must register and obtain books of ration stamps during this period.

Under present plans, each ration
stamp will be good for two weeks and stamp number one will permit
purchase of one pound of sugar, OPA said. The ration allowance might be changed for each two weeks thereafter, depending upon available sugar supplies.

Late Flashes

LONDON, April 16.—The thunderous roar of hundreds of British fighter planes filled the English channel sky today in what coast
watchers believed to be the RAF's greatest daylight sweep of the war against German holdings in France.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Legislation to create a women's auxiliary reserve in the navy to release thousands of men for sea-going service was passed today by the house on voice vote.

Under the terms of the bill, the petticoat branch of the navy would be open to any woman over the age of 20. The house previously passed a bill, now pending in the senate,
to establish a women's army auxiliary corps, and the naval measure
also went to the senate.

Eight-Hour Week Is Limit
For Fighter Pilots, Claim

Research Physician Reports Findings After Experiments With "Human Guinea Pigs"

CINCINNATI, April 16.—A group of human guinea pigs at the army's Wright field showed that fighter pilots should be on a strict eight-hour week, a research physician reported today.

That much flying time in high speed pursuit and bombing planes is about the maximum to maintain mental acuity, mental reaction and top-notch vision, Dr. J. W.
Heim of the Aero Medical Research laboratory at Wright field, Dayton, O., declared in an interview at a convention of the American Association of Industrial Physicians and surgeons.

Medical information from England has shown that the average useful flying life of a combat pilot is about 300 hours. Some men, such as the American Volunteer Group in China and Burma, may last several times that long, but for maximum efficiency a pilot's

time at the controls should not exceed eight hours a week to protect both the man and his airplane,
Dr. Heim said.

These findings were made in studies of a group of robust students from Antioch college, Yellow Springs, O., who volunteered to undergo physical and psychological studies in the field's pressure chamber where the air pressure can be reduced to a point encountered in an open cockpit airplane at 45,000 feet. The students were subjected only to 12,000 feet of simulated altitude but this was kept up for hours a day, six days a week almost four weeks—much more time
than the average pilot spends under such conditions in the air in the course of a year.

Dr. Heim studied the physical reaction of his subjects and at the

CORREGIDOR'S
GUNS SCORING

Hit Jap Troops On Bataan; Blow Up Enemy Am-
munition Dumps

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 16.—The war department reported today
that Corregidor's guns scored hits on troop concentrations and truck
columns on the Philippines' Bataan peninsula, and that enemy ammunition dumps were hit and blown up.

Pierce fighting continued on the island of Cebu, more than 300 miles to the south, where the Japanese last week landed an invasion force estimated at 12,000,
which was supported by dive bombers and tanks.

Corregidor was raided five times
yesterday, the communicate said,
but the defenders' anti-aircraft
artillery forced the Japanese planes as on most other occasions to fly
so high bombing was ineffective.

Lieutenant General Jonathan M.
Wainwright, the Philippine commander, reported that in the week
since April 9 the fortress island had been raided 65 times, but the war department said that "despite the almost constant bombing the damage to military installations has been relatively slight, and the morale of the troops is unimpaired."

The fortress island also was shelled intermittently yesterday by enemy batteries on the north and south shores of Manila bay.

Since the Japanese invasion started, Corregidor has had 205 air raid alarms, the communicate said.
Raids were actually more numerous, since on some occasions when an alarm continued for a half day four or five separate attacks took place.

PLANS SUBMITTED ON WATER STORAGE

More Data On Project Being Accumulated By City Engineer

The city is now gathering additional data on its proposed 3,000-000-gallon clear water storage, following the submission of a set of plans for the project to the Federal Works Agency.

City Engineer F. S. Backhoff is working out detailed specifications for the job in the event it is approved by the government and federal funds are released to help finance the undertaking.

An army officer and a representative of the state board of health recently inspected the site of the proposed concrete storage basin, just southwest of Salem, and studied other data relative to the project.

The engineer indicated today
that the government's ban on steel plate would eliminate, for the present at least, the construction of the proposed quarter-million overhead storage tank in the eastern part of the city. This had been considered as a secondary project.

The contemplated reservoir south of here, however, would be built of concrete.

State Director of Health R. H.
Markwith approved preliminary plans for the reservoir two months ago, pointing out in a letter to city council that "approval of the reservoir is granted because the storage will be an extremely important addition to the waterworks system."

Prohibition Workers
To Rally In Liverpool

"The Influence of Alcoholic Liquor Traffic on Man's Welfare" will be discussed at a Columbiana county prohibition conference at the East Liverpool First Methodist church Friday. Morning, afternoon, and evening sessions will be held.

Rev. D. Park Chapman of East Liverpool will be in charge. Addresses will be made by Edward E.
Blake of Chicago, chairman of a national prohibition committee, and representatives of the W. C. T. U.
He will also speak at the evening
session.

FRIDAY DEADLINE

in whose office applicants meet the field man who receives applications.

Loans are available for seed, fertilizer and spray materials only,
and are limited to those who do not have other sources of credit. G. L.
Huffman of Ravenna is the district representative who receives applications. He will be in the extension office of the court house on these dates.

U. S. FEARS HITLER
MAY SEIZE FLEET

Meanwhile, Americans Are Urged To Leave Un-
occupied France

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 16.—French Ambassador Henry-Haye arranged today to call at the state department (at 6 p. m., EWT) and speculation about his purpose included the thought that he might be bringing a declaration of Vichy France solidarity with Hitler's "new order."

Already, United States relations with Vichy appeared strained almost to the breaking point.

Americans Urged To Leave

All American residents were urged to leave unoccupied France
and congressmen expressed concern that Hitler would acquire the French fleet.

Acting Secretary of State Welles announced that he would receive the French diplomat today and some observers thought that Henry-Haye's mission might be to deliver official notification of a New and openly pro-Nazi collaborationist policy under the premiership of Pierre Laval.

Senators who have been watching the fast changing picture in unoccupied France meanwhile joined in gloomy forecasts that the French fleet might soon be aligned with Axis naval forces.

"Hitler will take the French fleet
now whenever he decides the time is right," said Senator Lucas (D-Ill.), a member of the senate naval committee. "He has been after it through pressure for many months.
We can expect direct action now at any time."

Urges Allies Get Jump

Similar views were expressed by Senators Bone (D-Wash.), Norris (Ind-Neb) and Gillette (D-Iowa), in separate interviews, with the latter urging that the United States and her allies get the jump by holding all French vessels and supplies in port and occupying the numerous French insular possessions in the western hemisphere.

U. S. Treasury Will
"Ring Doorbells" To Boost Bond Buying

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Secretary Morgenthau said today the treasury plans to "ring every doorbell in the country once a month
in an effort to increase voluntary purchases of war savings bonds."

He made the statement to the house ways and means committee as he advocated a continuation of the voluntary savings program.

Morgenthau reiterated a previous statement to the committee that he wanted to try out the voluntary system at least until July 1.

He told a press conference that the President "liked" a description he got from Morgenthau yesterday on the success of the voluntary payroll reduction plan by which union employees of General Motors corporation are buying bonds.

The secretary explained he was going before congressional committees today to tell the same story,
and added:

"I would not be giving this demonstration of the value of voluntary methods unless I felt I was in tune with the President."

Other administration economic leaders, including Price Administrator Leon Henderson and Federal Reserve Chairman Marriner S.
Eccles, recently have advocated that the voluntary method be dropped in favor of compulsory purchases by the public in proportion to their income.

These officials also were reported to be asking drastic increases in the pending $7,600,000,000 tax program, but Morgenthau, who is believed to oppose such increases, declined to comment on this aspect today.

COSHOCTON, April 16.—Wound-

gun duel, a man booked as Tom Quinlan, 45, was in hospital custody today on charges of breaking and entering, auto theft and shooting to kill. Officers, who dubbed the prisoner a "phantom bandit," reported he emptied two pistols at them after being cornered near the city limits.

NO MORE SUSPENSE ON FRANCE

Following the first hard blow of what seems to be virtually complete French surrender to Germany there is a feeling of relief. Suspense has ended. The United Nations can quit pulling out daisy petals to find out whether France loves them or not. She loves them not.

Laval's new ascendancy may not mean as much as extreme armists fear. But it does mean beyond question of doubt that the attempt to force France out of the German orbit not only has failed, but has failed conspicuously. Laval's Nazi sympathies are notorious.

Now that the thing that was greatly feared here and in Britain has happened, hoping that it wouldn't happen seems even sillier than it did before. France was defeated soundly by Germany two years ago—so soundly that it retained no control over its destiny.

Yet, since then, it has been permitted to retain a semblance of control, for reasons that will be easier to understand when the history of the war has been compiled. Hopes of the anti-Axis bloc were encouraged to rise out of proportion to the realities of the situation.

There was little room left for choice between Germany, with its brutal hands on France's throat, and Great Britain and the United States, trying to carry on a desperate flirtation by remote control. France has done what it was destined to do from the instant it surrendered to Germany's superior military strength; it has become a German-ruled territory. Henceforth, it will be useful no longer to Germany as a kind of hokum buffer state. It will pull its weight openly in the war effort. Germany is making its last desperate effort to rule the world. It has no further use now for masks and hokum.

AWAITING DELIVERY

Mayor LaGuardia, blasting away at Civilian Defense Director Landis, his successor in that troubled office, etches a ghastly little picture for his countrymen. If there were to be a bombing raid, the civilian defense equipment that the federal government never has furnished wouldn't put out any fires or bind up any bleeding victims.

New York's mayor rests his case, of course, on an assumption that should be challenged sharply by never has been: That Washington should be expected to provide civilian defense equipment. It is an assumption that grows naturally out of a policy of looking to Washington for everything, which New York City has been encouraged to do under LaGuardia.

In Ohio, meanwhile, certain local politicians, principally in Cleveland, are expecting Columbus to come through with what they need and don't get from Washington. This doesn't mean that many communities aren't going ahead realistically to furnish what they need. They will be the fortunate ones if something happens. A promise to deliver as soon as a bunch of remote bureaucrats go through the necessary gestures and clear the way for someone to begin to start to do something about whatever it is that's needed would seem awfully useless if the 1,000 lb. bombs began to go CRUMMP in half a dozen of the fair cities of the land some evening at sunset.

SPRING HOUSECLEANING

This year the situation is different. Spring housecleaning is more than a routine of drudgery, culminating in removal of all the dirt that happened to get inside during the winter to the outside—so it can be brought back in during the summer and taken out at fall housecleaning time. Something new has been added.

In the attic among the castoffs are various metal relics that should have been converted into something useful years ago. Now is the time for them to come to the aid of the country. In the garage and barn in the basement, in the trash barrels, in the kitchen and hall closets, even in the living room are articles that can be turned to use in the war effort.

Spring housecleaning is a patriotic duty this year. It is that simple and forthright, and if the assertion sounds suspiciously like some of those things that used to be quoted with sarcastic remarks from German newspapers before the United States got into its stride, then the similarity is far from accidental. There is no reason for Americans to think they are exempt from the rule that in all-out war everybody contributes what he has, even if it is every junk.

TRIAL BALLOON A DAY

Out here in the grass states where the wealth to pay the bills is going to come from, the bloated bondholders and skinny taxpayers are beginning to wonder what kind of a game Washington is playing with them. A trial balloon a day is being hoisted. It's no fun to shoot at the things any more.

One day, Washington plans to save us from ourselves with higher taxes. Another day, the miracle is going to be performed with a ceiling on everything. The next time there's a shadow, it's a trial balloon telling how the job is going to be done with a withholding tax, or perhaps voluntary purchases of war stamps and bonds. On still another day, it's hinted that the thing is going to be accomplished with a combination. Then, latest of all, is a hint that there won't be any new taxes. Even Washington must see how this contributes to an impression of vacillation in the capital.

In fact, the uncertainty is almost as bad as the various cures for saving us from ourselves would be. Certainly it is a commentary on the improvement of politics that probably for the first time in history all proposals for parting the taxpayer and his money are submitted in the name of the taxpayer's own welfare; he is to be saved from the pitfalls of inflation.

THE STARS SAY:

For Friday, April 17

FAIRLY fortunate and favorable auguries are noted in this day's astral configuration. There may be definite openings for success and fulfillments in many directions, with the benefit of cooperation from influential persons. And while this may give assurance to the credits or financial standing and promote the personal, social or public prestige and popularity yet there are loopholes for illicit schemes, traps or pitfalls arising from some designing or intriguing sources. With prudence, thrift and integrity all should flourish.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may look for a moderately progressive and prosperous year, with opportunity for gratifying growth and expansion although to no sensational degree. Influential persons and friends assist to a security of the credit, business as well as social standing and prestige, although there are confusing, peculiar or sinister angles and intrigues to manipulate with prudence, integrity and sound judgment rather than hunches or gullibility. Be alert to impostors or tricksters.

A child born on this day should be clever, shrewd, ambitious although susceptible to imposition, intrigue or other deep currents of treachery.

NEW FARM OPPORTUNITY

CHICAGO, April 16.—The war has opened an opportunity for agriculture specialists to develop a new and profitable specialty—the cultivation of medicinal plants—Prof. E. H. Wirth of the University of Illinois college of pharmacy, said today.

Although prices have skyrocketed since the war blocked the nation's normal source of plant drugs produced by cheap European labor, Prof. Wirth cautioned that the growing of such specialties was no gold mine for the inexperienced.

"The cultivation of medicinal plants," he asserted in a prepared address to a meeting of Illinois druggists, "is a scientific agricultural project. Drug plants are subject to the same diseases and are affected by variations in soil and climate as are other crops.

"They require considerable labor in soil preparation, cultivation, and weeding, and perhaps more than other crops in harvesting and drying. Prices, though high now, may drop sharply when the war ends and foreign sources are reopened."

THAT'S WHAT THEY ALL THOUGHT

TREATING VARIOUS KINDS OF WORMS

They're Usually Harmless, Says Dr. Clendening

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

ACCORDING to my mail there is still a great deal of interest in intestinal worms. The kind of worms we have in North America are usually quite harmless, although they always alarm the parents when they are discovered.

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

Or they alarm an adult when he finds he has passed part of a tapeworm.

There are three kinds of intestinal worms all common in North America. One is the tapeworm which occurs mostly in adults and the other two are pinworms and roundworms which occur almost entirely in children.

From Uncooked Foods

Each of them has a somewhat different life history, but they all get into the body from uncooked food. The ordinary tapeworm deposits its eggs in the muscles of pigs and cattle and therefore is found in pork and beef and unless these are entirely cooked and their eggs destroyed, they may thrive in the human intestine and develop into an adult tapeworm. It has been figured that exposure to about 50 degrees of heat for a period of four to five hours is sufficient to destroy the eggs in the meat, so that ordinary cooking should do this.

Somewhat or other in a number of cases this is not done, and an egg lodges in the intestine and begins to grow into an adult tapeworm. It buries its head in a fold of the intestine rather high up and as the worm grows, it may attain a length of ten to thirty yards. Eventually it appears in the stool and nearly scares the possessor to death. The old superstition to the effect that a tapeworm makes people thin and that it absorbs food has no foundation. Even a thirty-six yard worm does not represent more than a good, solid meal.

Treatment of Tapeworm

The treatment of tapeworm is one of the easiest things in medicine. There are any number of drugs which will kill the worm such as male fern, pulegine and pumpkin seed. The great difficulty of course is to kill the head and for this reason careful preparation is necessary to prepare the intestine by giving a saline cathartic in order to cleanse the intestine completely. Roundworms and pinworms are childhood diseases. Pinworms may give a great deal of trouble. They are very small and the eggs are found on the surface of fruit. The way to prevent them therefore is to wash all fruit carefully before eating it to children. The worst trouble is that they infect the lower bowel, crawl out of the anus and attach themselves to the child's skin, causing intense itching, discomfort and, with scratching, infection. Treatment should be directed not only at removal of worms from the bowel, but also from the skin, the bed clothes and the underwear where they may frequently be found. The bed clothes and underwear should be changed quite frequently and boiled to prevent re-infection from these sources. The best drug to use in treatment of roundworms is chenopodium. It may be given either by mouth or in the form of an enema.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Clendening has seven pamphlets which can be obtained by readers. Each pamphlet sells for 10 cents. For any one pamphlet desired, send 10 cents in coin, and a self-addressed envelope stamped with a three-cent stamp to Dr. Logan Clendening, 235 E. 45th st., New York. The pamphlets are: "Three Weeks' Reducing Diet," "Indigestion and Constipation," "Reducing and Gaining," "Infant Feeding," "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes," "Feminine Hygiene," and "The Care of the Hair and Skin."

WAR-TIME'S IDEAL CLOTHES PRACTICAL, FEMININE

Whether your personal appointment is to see your best beau on furlough or to meet friend husband home early from his defense job, you'll want to look right with a dress which fits war-time's ideal—something practical but at the same time enchantingly feminine; something basic in style and tricked out with some staccato color accent or gay trimming. The first dress, left, is a kelly green rayon crepe with a fitted bodice and waist-hugging girdle. Its simple lines are made dramatic by a frothy ruffled trimming on the square neckline, and bracelet length sleeves. The second, center, is comfortable and smart for daytime and date wear. It is a two-piece with the new torso blouse and pleated skirt of blue rayon crepe. The straight shoulder yoke below the collarless neckline is highlighted by a row of stitching. The third model is a velvet trimmed rayon taffeta frock. The heart-shaped neckline with velvet trimmed and bow-tied yoke establishes this basque bodice dress in the class of feminine allure.

BAPTISTS TO HOLD SPECIAL SERVICE

Bells Herald Approach of Spiritual Crusade; Philadelphia Clergyman Will Speak

The bell at the First Baptist church will toll each day at 11 a. m., calling members of the congregation to prayer for a two-minute period, heralding the approach of a spiritual crusade at the church May 12-24.

The crusade will be conducted by an eminent Philadelphia, Pa., clergyman, Dr. Walter Kallenbach. Dr. Kallenbach, who, although blind, has gained national recognition as an evangelist, holds two earned degrees from universities. He is reputed to be the only blind person to hold a Doctor of Theology degree and a Doctor of Philosophy certificate.

He completed a four-year course at the University of Virginia in two and one-half years and was admitted to Phi Beta Kappa honorary fraternity because his grades averaged 90 or better.

In the past seven years 40,000 individuals have made decisions for Christ under his ministry. It is pointed out by Rev. S. T. Magann, pastor of the Baptist church. As many others have made decisions of reconsecration. Dr. Kallenbach is listed in "Who's Who in America."

A. A. Circuit Opens 41st Season Today

Only two days after the start of major league baseball play, the opening salvos were fired today in the American Association.

A veteran Class AA circuit which weathered one world war and planned to carry on in a second one in accordance with President Roosevelt's "Go ahead" letter to Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis, the association in its 41st year consists of the same eight teams which have been members for four decades.

Columbus, winner of the Association race, the playoff title and the little World Series last year, started this year's campaign at Indianapolis. Both teams had new managers, Eddie Dyer replacing Burt Shotton at Columbus, and Gabby Hartnett, former Chicago Cubs catcher and manager, succeeding Wade Kullifer at Indianapolis.

Toledo was scheduled at Louisville, St. Paul at Milwaukee and Minneapolis at Kansas City in the other openings today.

The Kansas City Blues have a new manager, Johnny Neum, who took over the post held last year by Bill Meyer, and St. Paul is the fourth club to operate under a new boss, Harry (Truck) Hannah, who succeeded Ralph (Red) Kress.

Cleveland Host At Special Night Tilt

NEW YORK, April 16.—Members of baseball's advisory council went into another huddle today amid enough gold braid to indicate that a game between a major league all-star team and the best players of the nation's armed forces might be added to the summer diamond menu.

The game would be played July 7 in Cleveland's Municipal stadium, just 24 hours after the annual all-star game between the picked teams of the two major leagues in New York.

Both dates, as well as the sites, were selected yesterday when Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis, President Will Harridge of the American league, and President Ford Frick of the National league, the council members, opened their two-day conference.

In addition, the council decided that both games should be played at night in order to get as large crowds as possible. Both will start at 9 p. m., Eastern War Time.

Army and navy representatives were scheduled to sit in on today's discussion, indicating that the often-suggested contest involving a service team might be on the fire.

REDS DROP SECOND STRAIGHT TO BUCS

CINCINNATI, April 16.—Cincinnati's Reds are trying their damndest to get out of the rut that ruined their chances of winning last year's National league pennant—losing the first four games—but so far they're half way into it.

Manager Bill McKechnie is calling on either Gene Thompson or Johnny Vander Meer to keep the Pittsburgh Pirates from taking three games in a row. Luke Hamlin is the Pirate pitcher today.

Yesterday's 6-2 defeat by the Pirates was additional evidence that the Reds still can't hit when it counts. They left nine men on the bases and for the second day in a row.

Max Butcher gave them seven walks in the opener and Lloyd Dietz seven more in the second game, enough to lose three or four contests, but the Reds couldn't hit in the right spots.

The Pirates had Elmer Riddle, the National league's best 1941 hurler, ducking in a hurry. He let

Mrs. Carmichael holding husband's picture

In a newspaper interview in Melbourne, Australia, Major Richard Carmichael of Austin, Tex., disclosed how a single group of American bombers under his command sank or damaged 20 Japanese ships, including five heavy cruisers, and destroyed some 40 Jap planes in 15 raids north of Australia. Major Carmichael now is at General MacArthur's headquarters where he takes over the post of United Nations director of bombardment. That's his picture Mrs. Carmichael holds in the photo above, taken at Olean, N. Y.

SABOTAGE!

MASSIVE ENGINES HAVE BEEN WRECKED BY ABRASIVE DUST MIXED IN THE OIL. TO PREVENT THIS "SABOTAGE" IN YOUR CAR, OIL FILTERS ARE MADE TO TAKE OUT AS MUCH AS 3 POUNDS OF ABRASIVES IN A FEW THOUSAND MILES.

AS THE FILTER BECOMES FULL, THERE IS DANGER THAT ABRASIVE SLUDGE MAY BE DISLODGED INTO THE OIL STREAM. THIS DANGER IS INCREASED BY THE FACT THAT DIRTY OIL CONTINUES TO FORM SLUDGE WHEN THE CAR IS NOT USED. YOU WILL GET MORE SAFE MILEAGE FROM YOUR FILTER BY USING YOUR CAR REGULARLY AND CHANGING OIL FREQUENTLY THAN BY NEGLECTING BOTH. TAKE ADVANTAGE OF YOUR PENNZIP-PENNZOIL DEALER'S SERVICE FACILITIES.

Clyde Miller Wins Benefit Headpin Tourney With 336 Total

384 ENTER ANNUAL EVENT; DICKENS' 322 WOMEN'S HIGH

Wernet, Stacey Tie For Second With 326 In Men's Division

Clyde "Wink" Miller, National and Pastime league kegger, took first place in the annual headpin tourney with a count of 336. It was announced today by Bill Jurgens, secretary of the Salem Bowling association after a careful tabulation of figures. Miller was "red hot" as he fired strike after strike on the Masonic lanes last Saturday to compile his high total.

Tied for No. 2 slot was C. Wernet, who compiled a 326 total on games of 103, 111, and 112 and Bob Stacey who totaled a like number of pins on the Columbia alleys.

H. McBride took fourth place with a count of 325 on games of 105, 109, and 111 while in fifth was Mike Kilgore who fired a 321 series.

Right behind Kilgore with a 320 was Al Spear who counted the highest total rolled on the Grate alleys.

Trailing these keggers by just a pin or two were Bill Hull, Tom Reese, Henry Reese, Bill Fieldhouse, John Galchick and Jim Jackson. Altogether, 35 men topped the charmed 300 mark while in the women's event only four soared over that mark.

"Teck" Collier's 314 was the highest count registered on the Hoffman drives while Stacey compiled the best score fired on the Columbia alleys.

In the top spot in the women's event was Emily Dickens of Columbia who hit a 322 on games of 109, 109 and 104. Frieda Orr's 312 was the highest score rolled by any woman on the Grate lanes and was good enough to earn her second place. M. Priser and E. Briggs with 307 and 303 respectively were the only other females keggers to score 300.

Olive Ramsey rolled series of 298 and 292 while Frieda Orr added a 293 to her 312.

A total of 384 keggers entered the tourney with the Grate alleys taking care of 138 of them. The annual event, held this year for the benefit of soldiers, drew $332 for the men in the armed forces while $947.75 will be divided in prizes.

The Salem Bowling association will meet at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow at the Masonic temple to split the awards and make plans for the annual kegger's banquet.

24 TEAMS ENTERED IN NEWARK RELAYS

NEWARK, April 16—Twenty-four schools, headed by Springfield's defending champion, Wildcats, will compete Saturday in the third annual Newark High school relays at White Field.

Unless Cleveland East Tech is a last-minute entry, the Cats from Clark county will be odds-on choices to repeat. Last year East Tech tied Cleveland Heights for the state championship.

Springfield in the next spot. Transportation problems may prevent entry of the Cleveland teams.

Columbus North, 1940 winner of the Newark event, was smothered 97½ to 25½ by Springfield last week.

More than 500 athletes are expected to compete Saturday, with junior high half-mile relay teams augmenting the 24 senior high squads. Director Clifford E. Orr said he expected several late entrants by Friday's deadline.

Already entered are Lorain, Columbus East, Columbus Central, Mechanicsburg, Canton McKinley, Chillicothe, Lima Central, McConneville, Akron North, Columbus South, Columbus North, Columbus West, Toledo Waite, Marietta, Toledo Devilbiss, Dayton Roosevelt, Springfield, Mansfield, Union-Purcell, Lancaster, Dover, Alliance, Circleville and Newark.

Springfield had a 10-point victory margin last year, scoring 56½ to second place Columbus Central's 46½. Preliminaries in Saturday's meet start at 10 a. m. with the finals at 2 p. m.

SPORT CHATTER

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, April 16—The way Larry MacPhail figures it, the Giants' and Dodgers' contributions to army and navy relief may amount to as much as one third of the whole season's profits. They're each giving the entire "take" of a game against the other, which ordinarily would be $20,000 to $25,000, and Larry figures a club that clears more than $75,000 above all expenses is rolling in dough.

Eddie Ahern, who used to catch Walter Johnson, has been appointed athletic director at the Republic aviation plant at Farmingdale, N. Y., and Tex Carleton, the old National league pitcher, will handle a similar job at the new Consolidated bomber plant at Fort Worth.

Sportpourri
Superstitions? Jack McGehee, Auburn football coach, won't let any of his boys wear jersey 13 since one of them broke a leg while wearing that number some years ago—and Jimmie Hitchcock, his assistant and head baseball coach, uses 13 every chance he gets.

Welterweight Champ Red Cochrane has written the lyrics for a song, "Hail to the Navy," composed by a shipmate, Art Small.

Folks who saw him play in the Northern league saw Jim Castiglia, the A's new catcher, can't hit a high inside pitch and they expect major league pitchers to find it out soon enough.

MILNAR CHOSEN TO FACE TIGERS TODAY

(By Associated Press)
DETROIT, April 16—The Cleveland Indians have exactly the same American league standing today as they had at the finish of last season—tied with Detroit for fourth place.

That the Tribe intended to advance today was evident when Manager Lou Boudreau named veteran Al Milnar to pitch the third and final game of the series here.

Tommy Bridges, dean of Tiger hurlers, and rookie Hal White were picked to oppose him. Boudreau used a rookie battery against the light-hitting Tigers yesterday, and the Tribe came out on the short end of a 6 to 2 verdict, held to seven hits by right-hander Dizzy Trout.

Hurley Ray Post, Lou's teammate at University of Illinois and fresh up from the Three-eye league, was chased from the mound by a two-run uprising in the fourth inning of his first game in the major leagues. Post yielded eight hits, and Detroit got three more off Tom Ferrick and Harry Elsenstat.

The Indians' offense was weak. Ken Keltner got Cleveland's first hit after two were out in the fourth. It became the first run after Jeff Heath walked and Les Fleming singled to center on the first pitch.

The Redskins' other run came in the eighth when Fabian Gaffke, pinch-hitting for Ferrick, singled to center. Roy Weatherly grounded to short but Gaffke reached third on Oris Hockett's long single to center. It was the rookie outfielder's second hit of the day. Gaffke scored on Trout's wild pitch.

Kenny Strobel, Blanchester High school pitcher, entered baseball's hall of fame this week when he hurled a no-hit game against Hillsboro's Indians. Only one thing was wrong—Strobel and his Blanchester mates lost the game—2 to 0. Three errors, a hit batsman and a fielder's choice gave the Indians their two markers in the disastrous fifth.

CONN, BOB PASTOR NAMED AS LOGICAL HEAVY CONTENDERS

NBA Chooses Top-notchers In Other Pugilistic Divisions Also

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 16—Billy Conn and Bob Pastor, the two fighters tentatively scheduled to tangle with Joe Louis before the coming summer ends, are listed as the "logical contenders" for the heavyweight championship in the National Boxing Association's new quarterly rankings.

Conn, who went 13 rounds with the Bomber last June and is scheduled for a re-match in June or July in New York this year, remained at the top of the list. Pastor moved into the select set through his victories over Turkey Thompson, Lem Franklin and Booker Bickwith.

Chief changes in other divisions found Jimmy Bivins, Cleveland Negro who recently outpointed light-heavyweight boss Gus Lesnevich, moving into the challengers' set among the 175-pounders along with Billy Soose, Booker Bickwith and Ken Overlin.

Tony Martin of Milwaukee joining George Abrams as logical contenders for Tony Zale's middleweight crown; Charley Burley of Pittsburgh and California Jackie Wilson ranged among leading welterweight challengers; Allie Stolz, Newark youngster who meets Sammy Angott for the light weight crown May 15, moving up to a contender's spot in that direction, and Charles (Lulu) Costantino, New Yorker unbeaten in 55 professional starts, skyrocketing among the featherweight contenders.

BIG DOUBLE MIDNITE SHOW SAT. AT THE STROKE OF 12

PASTIME LEAGUE

Albrights won six games on the Grate alleys last night taking three on forfeits from Hunts and Penneys but the six were not enough to overhaul the Citizens Ice crew which chalked up another three-game triumph over the Eagles. Three games still separate the two teams in the Pastime league.

Gene Pugh battered the pins of a 222 his last game to lead Jacksons to a shut out win over the Strop Club. The servicemen totaled 931 pins in their final game. With Louie DeGraw hitting a 248 to anchor a 598 series, the Gold Bar came through with a forfeit win over Penneys, and held to the fast pace being set by the leading teams.

In other matches the Salem Label copped a pair from Bloombergs and Loudons took three on a forfeit from Sponsellers.

Olive Ramsey toppled 583 maples on the Masonic lanes last night as the Ohio Edison keggers took two from Mullins. She compiled her high total on games of 207, 190 and 186. The Salem News chopped another game off the Edison margin as they shutout Warks. Mildred Kline anchored her series with a 199.

Helen Roessler smashed out a 234 her second game to highlight a flashy 586 series as Kresges took three from Starks. In the other match on the schedule Brownies topped the Bankerettes twice.

QUAKER THINCLADS BEATEN IN OPENER BY RAYEN, 68 TO 50

Beardmore Paces Team As Ferkko, Charnesky Run Great Races

The Salem High thinclads made an unspesified debut on the clinders yesterday as they dropped a 68-50 decision to the Youngstown Rayen squad on the Rayen track.

Only the mile relay teams lived up to the advance standards set earlier in the week although several members of the team came through with surprise performances.

Foremost among these was Darwin Charnesky, a sophomore, who came through with a win in the 880 in 2:15, a good mark for so early in the year. Ed Ferkko, quarter miler and a member of the mile relay team, copped second place in the 440 yard dash and ran a beautiful race in the relay event.

Bill Beardmore won the 220 yard dash in 24.5 seconds with Dick Boughton right on his heels. Danny Kleon took first in the pole vault with a 10-foot, six-inch leap into the zone while Bill Shoop came through with a nice mile run to take second in that event. Shoop finished about two feet behind the fleet Gooden of Rayen.

Boughton and Beardmore finished second and third, respectively, in the

CHAPTER FIFTEEN
Dick stooped and picked up the guard's weapon. "A sub-machine gun!" he observed gleefully. "That lessens the odds. We've a chance now."

"Aye," the squire said. "We're a match for ten of them." He patted his shotgun lovingly. The constable, however, looked dubious.

Showing his revolver into the constable's hand, Dick cautioned, "We've got to be careful. The girl's in there and we can't risk her life. I'll go round back and get in some way. You watch the front. Give me five minutes! Then fire at the place."

"Right," the Squire said. "Get going, my lad." He was grinning happily.

Dick slid off into the pale darkness of the woods and around the house, the machine gun cradled in his arm. It gave him a fine superior feeling. At the back he found a trellis leading to the upper windows. That was it. Up the trellis and in. You had an advantage being upstairs. The blighters were probably down below and you could let them have it down a stair well. He swung his strong little body up, heaving the gun firmly and presently he was clambering through a window and making his way softly down the hall.

He heard the sputter of the wireless set. Then a figure rose suddenly and fired at him point blank. This was the shot that Brinda, listening in the walled-up shaft of the disused dumb-waiter, heard.

Dick Malden went into action with the captured tommy-gun. Flame lanced at him from the wireless room, and a bullet sang so close by his ear that he felt its scorch.

He was horribly afraid Brinda might be in the line of fire, but there was nothing to do except shoot it out.

Squire May's shotgun boomed close beside him. "Look out!" the Squire shouted. "One of 'em's getting away!"

A man on the floor fired at Dick from a half-reclining position. Dick let him have a burst from the tommy-gun. The Nazi collapsed and lay still.

Malden peered into the room, looking for Brinda. He saw a figure curiously crouched, the hand drawn back, Dick shot fast, aiming low, then threw himself prone, just as the hand-grenade exploded. There was nothing much left of the man who had been about to throw it.

"Help!" called a voice. "I'm hurt bad!" It was the constable. A fragment of the grenade had struck him, but he did not sound like a dying man. "Let's have your flashlight!" Dick ordered. Crouching, he played it inside the room. The place was a shambles. Besides the smashed wireless set, lay all that remained of the grenade-tossed. Near the door was another man, quite dead. But no sign of Brinda.

Dick looked around for the Squire, then remembered he had said something about a man getting away.

He returned to the constable. The grenade fragment had ricocheted before hitting him, and his only injury was a slight scap wound.

"You're all right, man," he said. "Go back and look after our prisoner."

"Will Hi get casualty pay for this?" the constable wanted to know.

"You'll get a kick in the pants if you don't snap into it!" Dick advised him not too sternly.

Groaning, the constable struggled to his feet.

"What became of the Squire?" Dick asked.

"E went that way—round the corner of the 'ouse. E was 'ot after a big 'un!"

Dick hastened in the direction indicated.

The spy who had got away was the chief of Brinda's captors. He was the one who had insisted throughout that the sensible thing to do was to kill her immediately. He was also the one who had locked her in the abandoned kitchen.

When the firing started, he emptied his automatic, then leaped out a window and dashed toward Brinda's prison. He had a start on the Squire, and was safely inside before that doughty 'chutist hunter hove into view.

Locking the door behind him, the spy shoved a fresh clip into his automatic and looked about for Brinda. At the moment, he had no more sinister thought than to use her as a hostage or perhaps as a shield if the occasion arose.

It took a moment for his eyes to become accustomed to the dark. Then he realized that she was no longer in the room.

Furious and bewildered, he prowled about until he came to the disused dumb-waiter shaft. He guessed at once that it concealed his quarry.

But the discovery of the shaft also gave him hope. This might be the way of escape from the certain death that faced him if captured. It was a situation that called for strategy.

"Hello, there," he said, in passable English, keeping his voice low. "Are you all right?"

"Who is it?" came Brinda's voice.

A friend. You can come out now. But be quiet. They are all around us."

Brinda, too, lowered her voice. "In one moment, I am writing something now." She was scribbling with her eyebrow pencil.

"Writing, you say?"

"Yes. Numbers I want to remember. They were sending them over the wireless."

He swallowed a German epithet, then reassured her in good English with "Right-o! But hurry!"

In a moment, Brinda spoke again. "Here I come. Now tell me all about it."

As she emerged, the spy clapped a hand over her mouth.

"So, my pretty one, you were listening! You know all our little secrets, do you. Too bad, you'll never tell them. First, you will give me what you have written, and then—"

He twisted Brinda's hand that grasped the scrap of powder-paper on which, for better remembrance, she had scrawled the directions for the meeting with the U-boat.

Fighting desperately, she resisted his clutch, long enough to utter a single, half-stifled cry.

It was answered by a thunderous knock on the door.

"Open up!" boomed the voice of Squire May.

The spy smiled thinly. Letting Brinda go, he strode to the door, and flung it open. Dawn was at hand.

The muzzle of the Squire's shotgun poked inside.

"Come out with your hands in the air!" the Squire ordered. "I have you covered."

The spy edged along the wall. "Not so fast!" he cautioned.

"There's a girl here with me. I am armed. If you make one false move, she dies first." He trained his pistol on Brinda.
